You’ll be able to:

Examine contract terminology and review construction contracts used in different project delivery systems.

Explore contract administration issues such as schedule management, change orders, payment requests, work suspension and contract termination.

Handle delays and acceleration.

Understand contractual and statutory warranties.

Create a system of practice promoting contract compliance and ethical practices.
Michael W. Rutledge Partner at Salty Hair, Merci & Ress LLC
Mr. Rutledge is a partner in the firm, and his primary areas of practice include business and professional liability, construction law, and toxic torts, and general civil litigation. He is admitted to practice before all Mississippi and Louisiana state and federal courts. He graduated cum laude from Creighton University and received his Juris Doctorate degree from Tulane University Law School. Mr. Rutledge is a member of the Mississippi Bar Association and the Louisiana Bar Association. He is a member of the Louisiana Bar Association Public Information Committee. Mr. Rutledge also regularly volunteers time with the Tulane Moot Court Programs. He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Erika L. Mullenbach Cunningham Partner at Salty Hair, Merci & Ress LLC
Ms. Mullenbach Cunningham is a partner at the firm and has a civil litigation practice that focuses on representing clients in the areas of professional liability (architects and engineers), construction defects, toxic torts, insurance coverage and defense, and general civil litigation. She is admitted to practice in Louisiana, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia. She received her law degree from Tulane University Law School, where she was a member of the Tulane Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property, and authored the Comment entitled “The Influence of Property Rights on the Bankruptcy Status of Intellectual Property.”

J.D. degree from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law.

Andrew G. Vicknair Partner at Vicknair Law LLP
Mr. Vicknair worked as a software engineer for a major chemical manufacturer and as an electrical engineer for a major chemical manufacturer prior to entering law school. He regularly uses his prior work experience as part of his legal practice. He is now a partner in Shields & Mott. Mr. Vicknair’s primary practice areas include all phases of intellectual property, including litigation, prosecution, and transactional matters. He handles the drafting and negotiation of intellectual property agreements, such as licensing issues, contracts, non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements. He also practices in commercial litigation and construction litigation, including claims related to construction defects, personal injury, and professional liability contractors. Mr. Vicknair lectures on intellectual property law topics, including trademarks, patents and copyrights, as well as construction law topics such as Louisiana lien law and general Mississippi construction law.

Daniel Lund III Director at Groes Ross, PC
Mr. Lund’s practice focuses on construction and surety litigation and arbitration; business, insurance, and products liability defense litigation; contract drafting and negotiations; telecommunications; and labor and employment. He regularly lectures on construction law topics, including Louisiana lien law, zoning and land use planning, and general Louisiana and Federal construction law. Mr. Lund has received the “Top Lawyers” recognition in the fields of alternative dispute resolution and construction by New Orleans Magazine since 2012, has been selected for inclusion since 2014 in The Best Lawyers in America in the field of construction law and construction litigation, and has been honored since 2010 in the Louisiana Super Lawyers publication in the field of construction litigation. He earned his J.D. degree from Tulane University Law School, his undergraduate degree in Philosophy from the University of New Orleans, and his Master’s degree in Theological Studies from Duke University.

Details of this course include all phases of intellectual property, including litigation, prosecution, and transactional matters. He handles the drafting and negotiation of intellectual property agreements.